Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

Outside Chicago, there is a small cemetery in the woods behind Mundelein Seminary, where I was a student. One night I was exploring it. I looked up and was shocked to see an imposing seventeen-foot angel towering over me and preparing to blow a trumpet. Adrenaline rushed through me. I gasped and uttered, "Oh my God!" Quickly I realized it was in fact a massive bronze statue. I tried to calm myself down. But it still freaked me out.

As we begin to celebrate Easter today, this image might seem a bit unnerving. But please recall that for the first disciples on the morning of the resurrection, it was precisely that. It wasn't joyful at first, it was terrifying. It wasn't peaceful, it was unsettling. In that Jerusalem cemetery, something otherworldly had happened. Angels announced that he was no longer dead, but alive. They had blown their trumpets, so to speak, and Jesus had risen. Soon the disciples' shock in that dark cemetery would turn into joy.

We all have our own places of the dead, too, don't we? Deceased loved ones. Our tired patterns of blame. Relationships stuck in resentment. Indifference to the poor. Lost dreams. Despair about our future. Fear of sickness and death. These are our "cemeteries" where we don't expect much to happen. Today we enter — if we dare — those places with the disciples. See the mighty angel standing there, trumpet ready to blare!

— Father John Muir

CATHOLIC TRIVIA - JUST FOR FUN

Question: Which two items can be consumed without officially breaking the Eucharistic fast?

Answer: Medicine and water.

All Holy Spirit Family of Parishes—

Please join us at Queen of Martyrs on Saturday, April 13 and Sunday, April 14 for the Life in the Spirit Retreat. This retreat is hosted by the Evangelization Team of the Holy Spirit Family of Parishes and by the Queen of Martyrs Men's Group. It will be led by Presentation Ministries. PM is a Catholic "Lay Association of the Faithful" for 35 years under cannon law through the leadership of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. PM's primary focus is to help Catholic Christians grow in discipleship, by leading them to imitate Christ in His character and His Ministry. They place a strong emphasis in being led by the Holy Spirit and using the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

The goal of the Life in the Spirit Retreat is to help people find a new, fuller and better life as a Christian, by laying or strengthening the foundation of our truly Christian life. Each of us received the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit at our baptism. We were baptized in the Holy Spirit. This retreat will fan the fire of the Holy Spirit in our spiritual life, hopefully setting it ablaze.

The retreat is two days including continental breakfast Saturday, and lunch both days.

This is a free retreat!

Please register by mail, phone or Queen of Martyrs website.

Also, flyers were passed out at all the Holy Spirit Family of Parishes. Those can be filled out and turned into your parish.
