2nd Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy)

A protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide.

The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend, with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?" My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns — and took the time to answer them.

Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled — and perhaps a bit terrified — he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

An Easter Message from Archbishop Schnurr

God's power is not selfish

On Easter Sunday, the power of God is made manifest. It is a power that marked the beginning of time and stretches into eternity. It is a power that gave us life from nothingness. And a power that even death cannot withstand.

Unlike the domination we often witness in mankind, God's power is not selfish. All that He is, He offers to us. From the beginning of the world until the final coming of the kingdom, God has used His power for the purpose of our happiness.

Although God's power knows no limits, it is a power that we can reject. The choice is ours. God's inexplicable love keeps our freedom intact. For we cannot truly embrace God's love unless we have the ability to reject it.

This Easter, I invite you to open your heart to the gifts that God longs to give you. We are not enough on our own, but with His strength, even death cannot frustrate His plans for our prosperity.

The whole history of God's involvement with us is one of wonder, of power. And it is not over.

May the loving power of God be at work in your heart and home this Easter, and may the life of the Risen Christ strengthen you today and every day.

Why is the Annunciation usually celebrated on March 25?

The Solemnity of the Annunciation is celebrated nine months before the Nativity of the Lord, a feast which came about earlier historically. The Annunciation recalls the day when the Archangel Gabriel appeared to Mary and revealed God’s will that she become the Mother of the Son of God, and she accepted. At that moment, the “Word became Flesh and dwelt among us” (John 1:14).

In 2024, because it would otherwise fall during Holy Week, the Annunciation will be observed on Monday, April 8.

All Holy Spirit Family of Parishes—

Please join us at Queen of Martyrs on Saturday, April 13 and Sunday, April 14 for the Life in the Spirit Retreat. This retreat is hosted by the Evangelization Team of the Holy Spirit Family of Parishes and by the Queen of Martyrs Men’s Group. It will be led by Presentation Ministries. PM is a Catholic “Lay Association of the Faithful” for 35 years under canon law through the leadership of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. PM’s primary focus is to help Catholic Christians grow in discipleship, by leading them to imitate Christ in His character and His Ministry. They place a strong emphasis in being led by the Holy Spirit and using the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

The goal of the Life in the Spirit Retreat is to help people find a new, fuller and better life as a Christian, by laying or strengthening the foundation of our truly Christian life. Each of us received the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit at our baptism. We were baptized in the Holy Spirit. This retreat will fan the fire of the Holy Spirit in our spiritual life, hopefully setting it ablaze.

The retreat is two days including continental breakfast Saturday, and lunch both days.

This is a free retreat!

Please register by mail, phone or Queen of Martyrs website.

Also, flyers were passed out at all the Holy Spirit Family of Parishes. Those can be filled out and turned into your parish.

The Life in the Spirit Seminar is commonly used by Catholic groups in the context of renewal in the Roman Catholic Church. It is an instrument for bringing people into a deeper experience of the work of the Holy Spirit. The Seminar offers the basic presentation of the Gospel and the basic teaching about what the Lord is willing to do for all who come to Him.

The Church has never lost the life of the Spirit nor the experience of the Power of the Spirit.
