GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

5th Sunday Lent John 8:1-11

“The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle” (John 8:3). Why do they make her stand in the middle? Why not expose her on the periphery? The reason is something that affects us practically every day.

The center is what stabilizes a community’s identity. We humans tend to center ourselves around an accused and condemned victim — though we rarely admit it. This renews our fragile communities and our power as those who weaponize the accusation. This is effective because it is often a victim who represents something truly dangerous for the group. In this case, adultery stands for the breakdown of a community and those within it, because it forces questions like: who is my father? Whose child is this? Is this child one of us, or that of an outsider? The accusers place the adulteress in the center because their community, like most, is built around turning an enemy into a victim.

Once you understand this, you’ll see it almost anywhere humans group together (families, politics, workplaces, sports, schools, etc.). The good news is Jesus exposes this dynamic by deftly pointing out the sin-infected hearts of everyone besides the woman. They all leave, symbolizing the breakdown of the old order, and she is “left alone before him.” A new community has begun, structured around the merciful love of Christ.

What is in your center? What is in the center of our parish and family communities? Strive to center on Christ’s forgiveness, and we experience the new, lasting community we call the Church.

— Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

“Go, and sin no more,” Jesus tells the woman caught in adultery. Her life, like ours, has been saved. She, like us, has a chance for a new beginning. So he begs her, and he begs us: be changed by it. Let the mercy transform you. Go, and sin no more.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

“With great openness and courage, we need to question how widespread is the culture of life today among individual Christians, families, groups and communities in our Dioceses. With equal clarity and determination we must identify the steps we are called to take in order to serve life in all its truth” (The Gospel of Life 95).

Third Scrutiny

The words of the hymn, "I Now Live," echo faintly in churches still decorated for Lent as the Third Scrutiny takes place and those who journey toward Easter hear about the raising of Lazarus. The Gospel story is about more than just the raising of a single man, but about the life that Jesus Christ offers to every one of us. But there are many powers that seek to steal this life from us. In the words of this Scrutiny we pray for those journeying toward Easter, as the presider says: "Free from the grasp of death those who await your life-giving sacraments and deliver them from the spirit of corruption."

It is through the sacrament of the Church that Jesus Christ instituted that we receive a new life, but sin stands in our way. But what Jesus did for his friend in this story, he did for us through his cross and resurrection. If we choose life, there is no spirit that can stand against us. May we stand with those before us who will be baptized at Easter and testify to the reality that we now live because we have died and risen with him and death's power is no more.

To my dear Queen of Martyrs family and to many friends from each of the parishes of our Holy Spirit Family of Parishes,

I wish to express my deepest gratitude for the outpouring of love and support I have received since the tragic death of my beautiful 20 year-old granddaughter, Faith YuanYuan Oleckniche on March 15. I am deeply grateful for all the prayers, cards, messages of sorrow, the Mass enrollments, words of comfort and encouragement, and the numerous hugs I have received from so many. My whole family is broken hearted, but especially her parents, my daughter Cindy, son-in-law, Kevin, and her siblings, Chad, Hope, and Grace and little nephew, Owen. I was overwhelmed by the over 20 QM friends and several others who came to St. Susanna's Church in Mason, Ohio for YuanYuan's funeral on March 20.

I am especially grateful to Father Francis for his presence and for concelebrating the Mass with the Presider, Father Jonathan Jergens.

May YuanYuan finally be at peace and safely in the arms of our loving, merciful God.

May God bless you all for your kindnesses, love, and prayers for my family, for YuanYuan, and for me.

Love to all, Charlotte Minelli
