August 10, 2025
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 12:32-48

*"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be"
(Luke 12:34).*

There was a young mother in my parish community who was depressed due to financial strain. She prayed for help. One morning before Mass, she placed on the counter a zip-lock bag filled with jewelry and old coins. Smiling, she explained she had been fixing an old cabinet and found the items hidden deep within the walls of her home. One particular coin could be worth as much as $900,000. The contents of the bag—previously unknown to them—were now their prized possession. Their plans changed that week. They had to learn how much it was worth.

This week, the Lord tells us, "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be" (Luke 12:34). Our lives revolve around what we treasure. When we discover the treasure the Father gives us—the kingdom of God—everything changes. We might not know its precise value, but we rearrange our lives around it. The joy of this discovery should never be far from our minds.

Sometimes we go through times when we can't find this treasure. It seems hidden. Or it appears like dirty old coins and worthless jewelry in a Ziploc bag. But how crazy would my parishioners be if they tossed it away without knowing the cash value? How much crazier are we if we center our hearts on any treasure except that of Jesus and his kingdom? Remember, the Father is pleased to give it to us. That's why we put our hearts there, even when it is hidden.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Are You Talking to Me?

Last summer I was at the National Eucharistic Congress when Fr. Mike Schmitz delivered an impassioned call to repentance in his keynote address during an evening revival session. The crowd received his message with great enthusiasm. Their applause and the cheers shook the Lucas Oil Stadium.

The next night, Sr. Josephine Garrett took the stage and, in her address, got into the nitty-gritty of what it means to be a disciple, what it means to live repentance — or, as she so beautifully put it, to embrace the hunger.

And in doing so, she called back to the previous night's thunderous approval of Fr. Mike's message.

"When I heard you clapping when Father said we need repentance, I was worried you thought he was talking about your neighbor's repentance," she said. "He is not."

In other words: he's talking about your repentance.

We all love a message about The Right Thing To Do. We all love when a priest or a nun or any Catholic with a microphone gets up and talks about the truth. We rise to our feet and applaud.

And then, too often, we take a deep breath and walk to our car and forget all about it — because we think they were talking to someone else. You know...the others. The ones who need to hear it. The ones who aren't being vigilant.

In today's Gospel, Peter asks Jesus, "Is this parable [of the absent master] meant for us, or for everyone?" (Luke 12:41). And Jesus answers him with a question. In so many words, he says this: "Do you want it to be for you? Are you ready to hear it?"

Whoever we are. Wherever we're from. Whatever our life looks like. However we pray. He's talking to us.

Are we ready to hear Him?

Remember, It's better when we're together!

Who's Missing?

We all have a loved one who is unconnected to the Church—a friend, a cousin, maybe even someone in your own household. Maybe they were never part of the Church. Or maybe their life got very busy and Mass just drifted off the calendar. Whatever the circumstances, don't underestimate the power of a simple, personal invitation.

On Sunday, September 14 we're celebrating Together Sunday—a day when we make space in our pews, hearts, and schedules to be extra welcoming and hospitable to all who join us at Mass. Think of one person. Reach out. Because just about everything, and especially worship, is better when we're together.

Let's Reach Out to others!

Over the next few weeks you will hear announcements at Mass and be given information to help you reach out to your family, friends, neighbors, etc. Let's invite folks back to church or maybe even invite them for their first time.

St. Clare of Assisi

As a girl in 12th century Italy, Clare heard the legendary St. Francis preaching in the square below her family home. Inspired, Clare snuck away in the middle of the night to join Francis and his followers. Francis cut her hair like the men and gave her a rough tunic and veil to wear. For the sake of propriety, Clare was placed in a Benedictine nun monastery for several years. As more women were drawn to the simple spirituality, a new order was founded, now known as the Poor Clares. Despite requests from the pope himself to relax their vow of poverty, Clare stood firm in following the spirit of St. Francis. Clare's reputation for virtue spread and attracted women -- rich and poor alike -- to the new order that still exists today.

Widowed recently or years ago?

Why not check out Naim, a social & religious based organization for widowed Catholics. The next meeting is Monday, August 11, at 1 PM in Friendship Hall at St. Francis of Assisi, 6245 Wilmington Pike, followed by cards. On Sunday, August 17, Naim will attend the 10:30 AM Mass at St. Henry, 6696 Springboro Pike followed by Brunch at Marion's Pizza, 8991 Kingsridge Drive. Cards will follow. Want more information, contact Jim King @ 937-901-2849.

Queen of Martyrs

St. Vincent de Paul News

Thank you all for your ongoing donations of household goods! We continue to provide our neighbors with these basic needs as we do home visits. We continue to need: bath and kitchen towels; dishes; pots and pans; silverware; and any small appliances you no longer need. These items are such a big help for our neighbors in need! You can continue to drop them off in the narthex by the food donation box.

Have you ever thought of joining our SVDP Conference? We would love to have you! We are going to have a recruitment meeting on Thurs., Aug. 14th at 5:30 pm. No obligation, just a chance to learn more about SVDP and spend time with Queen of Martyrs Vincentians. Please let Louann Geel (937-430-5238 or louanngeel@yahoo.com)) know if you'd like to join us on the 14th. Please mark your calendars for the weekend of Sept. 19th-21st as we will have a SVDP truck on the Queen of Martyrs Church grounds for donations. These donations will benefit all those who are served by St. Vincent de Paul area wide, including our neighbors in the areas of the Holy Spirit Family of Parishes. There will be more to come in the future with a bulletin flyer including specifics about donations.
