November 2, 2025
The Commemoration
of All the Faithful Departed
John 6:37-40

I lost my wallet this year. It was such an annoyance to replace everything in it. A friend, moved by sympathy, gave me a beautiful new one. One month later I lost that one, too, with all my newly replaced cards. No matter what I did, I couldn't find what I had lost. I resigned myself to never seeing either of my wallets again.

Fortunately, the Lord Jesus is not like me in this regard. In today's Gospel (John 6:37-40), he says, "This is the will of the one who sent me, that I should not lose anything of what he gave me." Jesus, unlike me, is ever vigilant with what the Father has given him. He searches for every lost soul — as the shepherd leaves the ninety-nine to pursue the one lost sheep, or the woman rejoices upon recovering a lost coin — and even descends to the depths of loss on the cross and into the realm of the dead to recover that which seems forever lost.

On All Souls' Day, as we remember our faithful departed, these words kindle a hope beyond hope in our hearts. Even the dead are not lost to Jesus, though they may seem so to us. Nothing entrusted to him by the Father is ever truly lost. So, we may hope that every soul, no matter how wandering or forgotten in life, is secure in his loving care and destined to be raised on the last day. Of what the Father gives him, he loses nothing. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Prayer During Loss

O God,

In the midst of my grief, be with me.

Cover this season with Your comfort and consolation,
help me to know Your presence and Your grace.

Bring comfort to my affliction, and hope to my heart.

Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

To live with Christ, we must die with him.

But what does this mean?

What does this look like in the ordinary life of a Christian?

We must ask God for the wisdom to see our own crosses,
so that we may carry them into the newness of life.

VOCATION VIEW

The souls of the just are in God's hands
because Jesus opened the gates of heaven.

We pray for those who are unable to pray for themselves.

Continuing Formation:

The Amazing Parish Series

As a follow-up to "Radiate Christ," we are committed to ongoing formation in response to our discipleship call. In the coming months, we will begin a series titled

"Amazing Parish."

This series includes 13 video reflections; the leadership team has selected three that best illustrate our five core values. These sessions will help guide us in living out these values and strengthen our mission to serve as disciples.

Next, Upcoming
"Amazing Parish"
Reflection Date

November 17th, Monday
at Our Lady of Mercy, 6:30 PM

Please check into the bulletin for the addresses of this location..

We encourage everyone to take part in these sessions, which offer valuable opportunities to deepen our relationship with the Lord and prepare ourselves for the mission to which Christ calls us.

Enrich Your Faith

St. Charles Borromeo | Feast Day November 4

St. Charles Borromeo (1538 - 1584) is most known for living during the time of the Protestant Reformation and helped influence reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent.

Although St. Charles Borromeo belonged to nobility, he greatly desired to serve the Church. In 1559, his uncle was elected Pope Pius IV. He made Charles cardinal-deacon and administrator of the Archdiocese of Milan.

At the time, Charles was a simple student, but because of his intellectual qualities, he was assigned several important offices connected with the Vatican. After the death of his brother, he decided to become a priest and was ordained at age 25. Soon after he became bishop of Milan.

Quietly working behind the scenes, St. Charles Borromeo is credited with keeping the Council of Trent in session and encouraging the pope to renew the Council in 1562, after its 10-year suspension. Afterwards, he devoted his time to serving in the Archdiocese of Milan.

Among his most important actions during his life, St. Charles Borromeo established seminaries, colleges, and communities for the education of candidates for holy orders. His emphasis on Catholic learning greatly increased the preparation of men for the priesthood and benefited their congregations. He died at the age of 46.

2025 ANNUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Queen of Martyrs annual Eucharistic Adoration with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will take place, beginning on Saturday, November 8, at 9:00 am and closing on Sunday, November 9, at 10:40 am immediately before the 11:00 am Mass. All parishioners of the Holy Spirit Family of Parishes, their families and friends are invited to participate in this special opportunity to worship Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament! An hour spent in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament provides us with an infusion of many graces, including our own spiritual growth.

All are encouraged to take this opportunity to spend time in quiet prayer and adoration at any time of day or night. For your security during the night hours, the church will be locked, but a bell will be positioned at the entry doors to alert the worshipper/s inside that you want to enter the church.

Sign-up sheets are posted in the narthex for those who wish to commit to a specific time to spend in adoration. Or Call Liz at Queen of Martyrs office, 937-277-2092, give your name and phone number, and we will place your name on the sign-up sheet.

Adoration times are not limited to those who sign up. If you do not want to commit to a specific time, you are encouraged to come at any time it is convenient for you.

"The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth. Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him and make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in heaven and will help bring about everlasting peace on earth."

- St. Teresa of Calcutta.
