SYNOD 2027 LUNCH & LEARN –
JUNE 11 AND JUNE 16

What is a synod? Why is our archdiocese holding one now? What do we hope to accomplish? How can I get involved? These and other questions will be addressed during two “Lunch & Learn” webinars for parish leaders and staff members, taking place from 12:00–1:00 p.m. on Thursday, June 11, and Tuesday, June 16. No RSVP is required, but calendar invites are available on the respective pages. The content will be identical in both webinars. Please join us—bring your own lunch!

For Everyone!:

You are invited to Evening Prayer with Archbishop Robert G. Casey for Synod 2027. Please join Archbishop Casey and fellow members of the faithful for the opening convocation of Synod 2027 on the occasion of the 205th Anniversary of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. The event will be held on Friday, June 19, at 7:00 PM at St. Francis of Assisi Church (6245 Wilmington Pike, Centerville, OH 45459). A reception will follow. No RSVP is required.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 14, 2026

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 9:36-10:8

A few years ago, I met a woman in my parish who was a successful lawyer. Yet in her free time, she poured her energy into a nonprofit she founded to advocate for children with special needs. When I asked what inspired her, she spoke of her niece, who was born with disabilities. Her niece was both a glorious gift and a constant challenge. Out of that painful, beautiful experience, she felt called to create something lasting for other children and parents. The nonprofit thrived, not because she had mapped it all out, but because she was deeply moved to act.

In today's Gospel, Jesus is “moved with compassion” for the crowd, for they were “like sheep without a shepherd.” (Matthew 9:36) So he calls his disciples, ordinary men with no special qualifications, and sends them to heal, preach, and cast out demons. Their mission flows not from their skills but from his authority and the Spirit's gifts.

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the Spirit continually pours out charisms, special graces for the good of the Church and the world (cf. Lumen Gentium 4 & 12). These often arise from the unfolding of our lives: from what breaks your heart, what fills you with hope, what suffering has shaped you. The Spirit works through those very experiences to equip us with gifts that build up others.

What is your charism? Well, what needs around you call you to loving action? This could be where Christ is sending you. Allow your heart to be moved like Christ's. Then get to work.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Laborers

“The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few.”

This excerpt from Matthew's Gospel has become a catchphrase in the modern Church. We give ourselves vertigo with the amount of head-shaking we do over the much-lamented “decline in numbers.”

Which numbers, you ask? Well, take your pick — numbers of baptized Catholic children who continue to profess their faith in adulthood, numbers of registered parishioners, numbers of priests ordained each year. All are a fraction of what they were generations ago.

That last one — the priests — that's a particular worry for us, isn't it? So we pray, “Send us laborers, Lord! Make them holy. Make them earnest.”

And then we add, in the silence of our hearts: “Make them perfect.”

It's no secret that part of the reason the pews are empty is because we often find it hard to love the Church if we find it hard to love a particular priest, a particular bishop, or a particular human representative of the Church.

Because that's the thing about priests and bishops and all the laborers in the field: they are human. They are sinners. Just like you and me.

We must consider this: today's Gospel lists the Apostles whom Jesus sent out in ministry to heal, console, and evangelize, and right at the end — like a record scratch — comes the name of Judas Iscariot, the betrayer. If ever a laborer failed in his work, it was Judas.

And surely, when he did, his fellow laborers were so demoralized and so disenchanting that they considered laying down their tools and leaving the harvest to wither and die.

But they did not, and we must not.

Without cost we have received, and without cost we are called to give.

So we labor on, for the day is drawing to a close, and the threshing time is near.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The Power of a Simple Action

I remember seeing a story on a morning news program about a little girl who wanted to give an elderly man in a grocery store a hug. She had no way of knowing that this man had just lost his wife of many years and now felt so very alone and depressed. Her reaching out to the man seemed odd to her mom at first, but the girl was so insistent about giving a hug she moved the shopping carts close together so the exchange could take place. No one knew that from that moment on the little girl would ask to visit her new friend at least once a week for the next four years until he passed away. In an interview soon after the initial encounter, the man said, "I haven't been this happy in some time." Imagine the joy that relationship brought to them both over the years!

It was just a moment. It was a simple gesture. Yet, it had a large impact that no one could have predicted. You never know what will result when we give just a little of ourselves. That uncertainty too often leads us to hold back or refrain from the simple actions of love or gestures of generosity that could come so easily for us if we wanted. We should never doubt the power of a simple random act of kindness. Generosity does not need to be grand to make a big difference. The time is now, and the opportunity presents itself often to plant a small seed that God can water and nourish so that something beautiful can grow.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK -

1st Reading

God reveals to Moses His intention to make Israel a "treasured possession among all the peoples... a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Have you ever received an incredible gift you never saw coming?

2nd Reading

Paul teaches us that as believers, we have been reconciled to God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Can you think of a time when you reconciled with a friend or family member?

Gospel Reading

Jesus commissioned his 12 Apostles to carry on his missionary work of healing the sick and exorcising unclean spirits. Do you have a sense of mission for your life?

11th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Blessed Is She Who Believed”

Women’s Retreat for the Holy Spirit Family

Saturday, August 15 -
Feast of the Assumption of Mary

9:00 AM -3:45 PM, followed by Mass at 4:00

Light Breakfast and Lunch included.

Location: St. Benedict the Moor

Presenter: Andrea Pannell, Spiritual Director and Diversity Director at St. Josephine Bakhita Parish in Columbus, OH

This Women’s Day Retreat will look to invite us to explore prayer as "living relationship." Prayer as a relationship rooted in honesty, trust, and deep listening. Anchored in Luke 1:45, “Blessed are you who believed what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled,” the retreat reflects on belief not as certainty or perfection, but as the courageous choice to remain open to God, even in seasons of confusion, pain, or unknowing.

More information, including cost, coming soon.
Registration will open at the end of June.

ST. BENEDICT’S WOMEN’S GROUP MEETING

Our next meeting will be held on Saturday, June 20, 2026, at 9:30 a.m. in the Meeting Room. A continental breakfast will be served. Our agenda includes discussions on the Women’s Retreat (8/15), the Interfaith Group Discussion (9/24), and the Murder Mystery Dinner Theatre (10/3). We will also review the final report on the Mother’s Day Brunch and discuss plans for next year. We hope to see you there!
