GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

July 5, 2026

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Matthew 11:25-30

This weekend, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Unlike most nations, the United States was not founded primarily on a shared ethnicity, language, or culture. Instead, our founders built a political community out of diverse peoples united by a shared vision of liberty. That vision echoes something deep in the Christian mystery revealed in today's Gospel.

Jesus returns to his hometown. The people see only what is familiar: the carpenter, the son of Mary, one of their own. As Mark tells us, "They took offense at him. Jesus said, 'A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.'" Their narrow vision blinds them. Jesus has come to inaugurate a new communion that transcends geography, bloodlines, and culture. He has come to unite all people in himself.

At its best, America's national unity reflects this possibility, which fully subsists only in the Catholic Church. Our unity is not based on ancestry or tribe, but on a shared commitment to higher ideals. For this reason, we can love our country with gratitude while situating patriotism within the broader horizon of faith.

Rooted in Christ, we are less vulnerable to the unholy tribalism that threatens civic life and faith. This weekend, let us thank God for our nation and pray that we also live as citizens of Heaven in Jesus Christ.

— Father John Muir

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Smallness of Great Faith

My children attend Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) for their faith formation. Because of its Montessori basis, CGS atriums, which are something like classrooms, contain lots of objects made from real materials — authentic glass, wood, and ceramic.

This is a polite way of saying there are lots of breakable things in there.

So when my four-year-old entered the atrium on her first day of CGS, my whole body tensed, wondering what she would shatter first. I had to restrain myself from crying out, "Don't touch anything!" She spotted the prayer table — the low, wooden stand which holds an open Bible, candles, a vase with flowers and a statue of the Good Shepherd. It's the centerpiece of every atrium.

She knelt before the table. She made the sign of the cross. And she sat there, still and silent.

I stopped dead in my tracks. How had she known to come here? And where did she learn to make the sign of the cross? (Obviously we've tried to teach her, but she does it wrong every time!) And why was she sitting there so quietly, so expectantly, in front of a book she can't read?

A thought came to me so clearly: Well, Colleen, you can read that book. But can you understand it?

It is so easy for us to forget that great faith does not require great intelligence. It does not require great knowledge of the world and its workings. Great faith does not require the believer to possess any answers.

Great faith only requires the believer to know his own smallness.

ST. MARIA GORETTI

Have you heard of the patron saint of purity? Born to peasant parents in southern Italy, St. Maria Goretti was a devout girl whose life was marked by difficulty. Her father died when she was nine, leaving her single mother with six mouths to feed. Two neighbors helped on the family farm, including a young man named Alessandro. He began making crude comments towards Maria. She repeatedly denied him. After several years, Alessandro attacked Maria to force himself on her. She resisted and, in his anger, Alessandro stabbed her. Maria died from the wounds' infections, but her last words were "I forgive Alessandro Serenelli, and I want him with me in heaven forever." While he was in prison, Maria appeared to Alessandro with a bouquet of roses, one for each wound he inflicted. In a true miracle of mercy, Alessandro experienced repentance, became a Franciscan brother after his release, and was later present at Maria's canonization. St. Maria Goretti, pray for us!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Faith Like a Child

If you Google Search recommendations on how to raise generous children, almost every list of ideas begins with — or at least contains — the directive for adults to be good models of generosity themselves. Our children learn from our actions much more than from our words. Of course, when I think back over the years while my children were growing up, I think I may have learned as much from them as they learned from me. There is a time between early childhood and middle school where a child seems to be freer to give and share than at any other time in life. It is around the age of First Communion when the cries of “mine” turn to laughter and smiles, and the urge to be a part of something bigger than oneself leads to sharing. Before you know it, the child hits the pre-teen years, and once again, he or she becomes the center of the universe.

I believe that the previous paragraph is all true, however, the stages described seem to repeat themselves throughout adulthood. Don't you agree? Sometimes we fall into seeing ourselves as the center of the universe, or we become consumed by our state in life or with what we have acquired. Also, we at times are generous and loving people. It is sin that draws us back into ourselves and away from any meaningful life of stewardship and generosity. In order to be freed for love, we need role models to help us see what really matters. We need to reflect on the example of many of our brothers and sisters in Christ. And, yes, we need to look to children who may be at the point in their lives where sharing is fun, and love is something in abundance. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK -

1st Reading Question

Zechariah speaks of a just and humble king who will lead all people to a future of peace and joy. What are some things that make you genuinely happy?

2nd Reading Question

Paul teaches that the Spirit of God dwells in those who believe in Jesus. Where do you see the Holy Spirit active in your life?

Gospel Question

Jesus speaks of himself as meek and humble of heart, and invites us to find “rest” in him. What are some burdens Jesus could relieve for you?

Enrich Your Faith

EXPLAINED! –
CONNECT WITH
TRADITION AND GROW
YOUR FAITH

Empathy

Empathy describes our ability to connect emotionally with the suffering of others, as Christ connected emotionally with our suffering in original sin. This virtue flows directly from the virtue of charity, and growth in charity will enable growth in empathy.

“Blessed Is She Who Believed”

Women’s Retreat for the Holy Spirit Family

Saturday, August 15 -
Feast of the Assumption of Mary

9:00 AM -3:45 PM, followed by Mass at 4:00

Light Breakfast and Lunch included.

Location: St. Benedict the Moor

Presenter: Andrea Pannell, Spiritual Director and Diversity Director at St. Josephine Bakhita Parish in Columbus, OH

This Women’s Day Retreat will look to invite us to explore prayer as "living relationship." Prayer as a relationship rooted in honesty, trust, and deep listening. Anchored in Luke 1:45, “Blessed are you who believed what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled,” the retreat reflects on belief not as certainty or perfection, but as the courageous choice to remain open to God, even in seasons of confusion, pain, or unknowing.

More information, including cost, coming soon. Registration will open at the end of June.

Full of Grace Ministries sponsors a Food, Fun & Fellowship Bingo and Free Meal on the first and third Wednesday of each month. This fun afternoon is held at Corpus Christi in the Madonna Room with the help of volunteers. They are always in need of prizes to give out to the children and adults.

They could use things like:

Children: Bubbles, card games (such as Go Fish and Uno), small board games, stickers, coloring books, and crayons. Books, especially for younger readers like Captain Underpants, Junie B. Jones, Calvin & Hobbes, Dogman, etc.

Adults: $10-$20 Gift cards to restaurants (Rally’s, Kroger, Gem City Market, Domino’s, Grandma’s), jewelry, scarves, etc...

New items only please.

If you are able to donate any of these items you can drop them off directly the first or third Wednesday of each month between 4:30 & 5:30 at Corpus Christi or you can bring them to Mass (mark the donation Full of Grace Ministries) and we will pick them up. We are always looking for volunteers too!

LIVE THE LITURGY -

These days, everyone’s an expert. We have a world of information at our fingertips. But some answers can’t be found in newspapers or even history books. What God hides from the wise, He reveals to the little ones. Are you looking in the right place?

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him. John 12:26

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion: Is a Catholic lay person who assists in the distribution of Holy Communion, either during the Mass, or afterwards, such as to housebound persons. Please consider becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion at one of our weekend Masses. Your commitment time would be minimal and the experience very rewarding.

Altar Servers: Our Holy Spirit Family of Parishes is in need of altar servers for weekend Masses at all our church sites. We would like to encourage individuals and families to sign-up for this important ministry. Children who would like to be an altar server should be in the fourth grade or above and have had First Communion. Adults need to be in good standing with the Catholic Church. Also if you have served in the past give us a call!

Ushers: Escort, accompany, shepherd, guide, conduct, steer and lead are a few of the synonyms of Usher. Our ushers are some of the first people that you meet coming into church. Ushers don’t just pass the baskets around to take your money. They are important because they keep things running smoothly before, during and after the Mass and they do a great meet and greet as you come through the doors!

Lectors: Through this ministry you would help bring the Word of God to the People of God. Lectors are needed to fill several openings at all our worship sites. Please consider volunteering for one of these important ministries by contacting us through email nsiwecki@holyspiritdayton.org. Be sure to state which location!

Or contact your ministry scheduler at your location.

Training and information will be provided for all who volunteer for any of these important ministry positions.
